RE: Martha Creek

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am happy to have the opportunity to write to recommend Martha Creek to you. Whether it is as a teacher, trainer, leader, employee, or in some other capacity, your experience of Martha Creek is certain to be sincere and filled with compassion, integrity, efficiency, knowledge and enthusiasm.

Martha does not know how to do anything halfway, and her enthusiasm is contagious. She is a born leader and a powerful and knowledgeable business person. I have found her leadership invaluable in my personal and professional life.

Were I a business owner/manager looking for someone to launch a market, or a spiritual leader looking for an understanding consultant, I could not hire anyone better than Martha Creek.

I have trained and worked alongside Martha as well as been the recipient of her skilled planning and facilitation. I am happy to talk with you further concerning my experience with Martha. Should you have further questions, feel free to contact me at 502-379-1246.

Yours Truly,

Lin Schüssler-Williams
